Union Pacific Railroad Company (“Union Pacific”), through its attorneys, submits this Motion for Extension of Stay and Suspension of the Briefing Schedule pursuant to § 200.190 of the Illinois Commerce Commission (“the Commission”) Rules of Practice, 83 Ill. Adm. Code § 200.190. In support of this Motion, Union Pacific states as follows:

1. On May 5, 2010, Union Pacific filed a Motion to Stay Proceedings and Suspend the Briefing Schedule due to discussions that may result in an amicable resolution of the issues.

2. On May 12, 2010, the Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) issued a Notice of ALJ’s Ruling granting Union Pacific’s Motion to Stay Proceedings and Suspend the Briefing Schedule until June 28, 2010.

3. Union Pacific, the Department, and the Village are continuing discussions that may result in an amicable resolution of the issues presented on Union Pacific’s Motion to Stay and Dismiss for Lack of Jurisdiction. Progress has been made to resolve the issues. However, the parties require more time to finalize a settlement and obtain approval from the governmental entities involved in the proceeding.

4. The related declaratory and injunctive action by Union Pacific in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois (No. 09-CV-4564) has been continued for purposes of settlement until September 30, 2010.

5. Accordingly, Union Pacific requests that the ALJ continue to stay this proceeding until October 4, 2010 to allow the parties an opportunity to reach an amicable resolution of these issues. Union Pacific further requests that the ALJ suspend to the current briefing schedule on its Motion to Stay and Dismiss for Lack of Jurisdiction until further notice.

6. The Department and the Village have provided no objection to the granting of this Motion, which is without prejudice to any party’s position on the merits of the Motion to Stay and Dismiss for Lack of Jurisdiction.

7. This Motion is made in good faith and not for purposes of delay. No party will be unfairly prejudiced by the granting of this Motion.

WHEREFORE, Union Pacific Railroad Company respectfully requests that the Administrative Law Judge grant this Motion.

Dated: June 28, 2010

Respectfully submitted,

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY
